AURELIUS DIGITAL SYSTEMS PVT. LTD.

TRAVEL, EXPENSE & CORPORATE CARD POLICY

FIN-EXP-12 | Version 6.0

Field	Controlled value
Document ID	FIN-EXP-12
Version	6.0
Effective date	2026-07-01
Review date	2027-06-30
Classification	INTERNAL
Owner	Manish Arora (VP, Finance Operations)
Approver	Meera Deshpande (CFO)
Department	Finance
Applicability	Employees and approved non-employee travelers/cardholders when company-funded travel or expense applies
Status	APPROVED - CONTROLLED INTERNAL DOCUMENT

Fictional enterprise notice: Aurelius Digital Systems Pvt. Ltd., its identities, systems and internal rules in this document are fictional.

Document Control

FIN-EXP-12-DC01 - Document-Control Record

Field	Controlled value
Document ID	FIN-EXP-12
Title	Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy
Version	6.0
Status	Approved - Controlled Internal Document
Effective date	2026-07-01
Review date	2027-06-30
Owner	Manish Arora (VP, Finance Operations)
Approver	Meera Deshpande (CFO)
Department	Finance
Classification	INTERNAL
Applicability	Employees and approved non-employee travelers/cardholders when company-funded travel or expense applies
Controlled repository	VaultPoint DMS
Distribution	Authorized workforce and functions according to classification and applicability
External-law treatment	Where a decision depends on external law or a client obligation not contained here, obtain verified guidance from Legal & Corporate Affairs.

Revision History

FIN-EXP-12-RH01 - Revision History

Version	Effective / status	Meaningful change
4.0	Prior controlled release	Initial controlled issue and consolidation of predecessor guidance.
4.5	Prior controlled release	Expanded scope, roles and source-of-truth controls.
5.0	Prior controlled release	Aligned enterprise systems, approval vocabulary and document interfaces.
5.4	Prior controlled release	Added clearer exception, recordkeeping and manager/accountability rules.
5.7	Prior controlled release	Refreshed operational workflows, conditional rules and cross-document handoffs.
6.0	2026-07-01	Current release aligned to enterprise governance baseline and approved process design.

Precedence: This document controls only within its approved subject. Specialist policies, standards and procedures control detailed requirements in their own subject matter; unresolved conflicts are escalated to the relevant Policy Owners.

Table of Contents

1 Purpose, Scope and Policy Principles
- 1.1 Applicability
- 1.2 Reasonable business expense principle
- 1.3 Fictional internal limits notice
- 1.4 No self-approval
- 1.5 Client-billable expenses

2 Roles, Systems and Approval Vocabulary
- 2.1 Traveler/cardholder
- 2.2 Line Manager
- 2.3 Cost Centre Owner
- 2.4 Finance Operations
- 2.5 Voyager Travel
- 2.6 LedgerLane Expense

3 Travel Request and Pre-Approval
- 3.1 When pre-approval is required
- 3.2 Business purpose
- 3.3 Cost estimate
- 3.4 Project/client approval versus financial approval
- 3.5 Changes after approval
- 3.6 Emergency travel

4 Booking Channels and Supplier Use
- 4.1 Voyager Travel default
- 4.2 Out-of-channel booking
- 4.3 Preferred suppliers
- 4.4 Booking changes/cancellations
- 4.5 Personal extensions

5 Air Travel and Class of Service
- 5.1 Domestic travel
- 5.2 International travel
- 5.3 Band/duration eligibility
- 5.4 Medical or accessibility exceptions
- 5.5 Upgrades
- 5.6 Missed flights

6 Hotels and Lodging
- 6.1 Nightly limits
- 6.2 Preferred hotels
- 6.3 Extended stays
- 6.4 Shared lodging
- 6.5 Personal charges
- 6.6 Safety exceptions

7 Ground Transport and Rental Vehicles
- 7.1 Taxis/rideshare
- 7.2 Rail
- 7.3 Rental vehicles
- 7.4 Personal vehicle use
- 7.5 Parking/tolls
- 7.6 Safety and insurance boundary

8 Meals and Per Diem
- 8.1 Meal limits
- 8.2 Per diem use
- 8.3 Hosted/client meals
- 8.4 Alcohol exclusion or restriction as internal rule
- 8.5 Duplicate meal claims
- 8.6 Tips/service charges

9 International Travel, Visa and Insurance Administration
- 9.1 Travel documentation

9.2 Visa processing support
9.3 Insurance
9.4 Foreign travel advisories as external source
9.5 Security/privacy preparation
9.6 Extended assignment handoff
10 Conferences, Training, Client Entertainment and Events
10.1 Conference registration
10.2 Training travel
10.3 Client entertainment
10.4 Team events
10.5 Gifts/hospitality boundary
10.6 Procurement boundary
11 Corporate Card Issuance and Use
11.1 Eligibility
11.2 Issuance
11.3 Permitted use
11.4 Personal use prohibition
11.5 Cash withdrawals
11.6 Lost/stolen card
11.7 Card suspension/closure
12 Reimbursable and Non-Reimbursable Expenses
12.1 Business expense categories
12.2 Home-office/remote expense boundary
12.3 Communication expenses
12.4 Client/project expenses
12.5 Personal convenience expenses
12.6 Duplicate reimbursement prevention
13 Receipts and Supporting Evidence
13.1 Receipt requirements
13.2 Electronic evidence
13.3 Itemization
13.4 Attendee/business-purpose evidence
13.5 Lost receipt process
13.6 Sensitive-data minimization
14 Expense Claim Submission and Deadlines
14.1 Claim creation
14.2 Submission deadline
14.3 Returned claims
14.4 Late claims
14.5 Card transaction reconciliation
14.6 Separation-period claims
15 Expense and Travel Approval Hierarchy
15.1 Line Manager approval
15.2 Cost Centre Owner approval
15.3 Higher-value/escalated approvals
15.4 Executive expenses
15.5 Conflicted approver route
15.6 Delegation
16 Currency Conversion and International Expense Processing
16.1 Approved conversion source
16.2 Card versus cash conversion
16.3 Exchange evidence
16.4 Mixed-currency claims
16.5 Rounding and corrections
17 Prohibited Expenses and Abuse Indicators
17.1 Personal expenses
17.2 Fines/penalties
17.3 Unapproved upgrades

17.4 Split claims
17.5 False/altered evidence
17.6 Procurement circumvention
18 Exceptions and Lost-Receipt Handling
18.1 Prospective travel exceptions
18.2 Post-event expense exception
18.3 Lost receipt declaration
18.4 Approval authority
18.5 Validity and documentation
19 Fraud Review, Recovery and Audit
19.1 Finance review
19.2 Potential misconduct referral
19.3 Recovery/repayment
19.4 Card suspension
19.5 Audit sampling
19.6 Record preservation
20 Security, Privacy and Records During Travel/Expense Processing
20.1 Travel data
20.2 Receipts containing Personal Data
20.3 Device/data security while traveling
20.4 Incident reporting
20.5 Records and retention

Document Governance and Use

Define the controlling internal policy for company-funded travel, reimbursable expenses and corporate cards, including approval routes, limits, evidence, exceptions, fraud controls and audits.

Travel approval, booking, flights, hotels, transport, rental vehicles, meals, per diem, international travel, visas, insurance, conferences, entertainment, corporate cards, receipts, reimbursements, deadlines, approval hierarchy, prohibited expenses, exceptions, currency conversion, fraud and audits.

Audience: Employees; approved non-employee travelers/cardholders; People Managers; Cost Centre Owners; Finance Operations; Procurement; travelers and approvers.

Controlled-source rule: Convenience copies, email extracts, screenshots and local notes do not supersede the controlled document or authoritative enterprise system for the relevant fact.

FIN-EXP-12-DG01 - Document Dependencies

Dependency type	Documents
Primary Control

1 Purpose, Scope and Policy Principles

Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy | FIN-EXP-12 | v6.0 | Effective 2026-07-01 | Section 1 Purpose, Scope and Policy Principles | Finance | INTERNAL

Purpose, Scope and Policy Principles establishes the requirements, responsibilities and decision rules that apply within this part of Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy. The rules are interpreted with the document scope, the employee/worker or system context, and any specialist cross-reference that applies.

1.1 Applicability

Applicability is governed as part of Purpose, Scope and Policy Principles. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For applicability, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

1.2 Reasonable business expense principle

Reasonable business expense principle is governed as part of Purpose, Scope and Policy Principles. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For reasonable, business, expense, principle, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

1.3 Fictional internal limits notice

Fictional internal limits notice is governed as part of Purpose, Scope and Policy Principles. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For fictional, internal, limits, notice, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

1.4 No self-approval

No self-approval is governed as part of Purpose, Scope and Policy Principles. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For approval, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

1.5 Client-billable expenses

Client-billable expenses is governed as part of Purpose, Scope and Policy Principles. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For client, billable, expenses, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

2 Roles, Systems and Approval Vocabulary

Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy | FIN-EXP-12 | v6.0 | Effective 2026-07-01 | Section 2 Roles, Systems and Approval Vocabulary | Finance | INTERNAL

Roles, Systems and Approval Vocabulary establishes the requirements, responsibilities and decision rules that apply within this part of Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy. The rules are interpreted with the document scope, the employee/worker or system context, and any specialist cross-reference that applies.

2.1 Traveler/cardholder

Traveler/cardholder is governed as part of Roles, Systems and Approval Vocabulary. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For traveler, cardholder, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

2.2 Line Manager

Line Manager is governed as part of Roles, Systems and Approval Vocabulary. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For manager, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

2.3 Cost Centre Owner

Cost Centre Owner is governed as part of Roles, Systems and Approval Vocabulary. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For centre, owner, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

Operational scenario S01: Band 4 employee requests business class for an eight-hour international flight. Band 4-5 international travel of at least eight hours is premium economy under FIN-EXP-12, not business class. Business class requires the eligible band rule or a documented approved exception.

2.4 Finance Operations

Finance Operations is governed as part of Roles, Systems and Approval Vocabulary. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For finance, operations, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

2.5 Voyager Travel

Voyager Travel is governed as part of Roles, Systems and Approval Vocabulary. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For voyager, travel, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

2.6 LedgerLane Expense

LedgerLane Expense is governed as part of Roles, Systems and Approval Vocabulary. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For ledgerlane, expense, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

3 Travel Request and Pre-Approval

Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy | FIN-EXP-12 | v6.0 | Effective 2026-07-01 | Section 3 Travel Request and Pre-Approval | Finance | INTERNAL

Travel Request and Pre-Approval establishes the requirements, responsibilities and decision rules that apply within this part of Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy. The rules are interpreted with the document scope, the employee/worker or system context, and any specialist cross-reference that applies.

3.1 When pre-approval is required

When pre-approval is required is governed as part of Travel Request and Pre-Approval. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For approval, required, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

FIN-EXP-12-T01 - Travel Pre-Approval Matrix

Situation	Primary approver	Specialist concurrence	Evidence
Routine request	Line Manager / designated owner	As triggered	Business purpose + workflow record
Material or high-risk request	Functional Head / Business Owner	Security/Privacy/Legal/Finance as applicable	Risk and exception rationale
Enterprise exception	Executive Approver or governance committee	Policy Owner	Scope, conditions, expiry, review date

3.2 Business purpose

Business purpose is governed as part of Travel Request and Pre-Approval. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For business, purpose, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

3.3 Cost estimate

Cost estimate is governed as part of Travel Request and Pre-Approval. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For estimate, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

3.4 Project/client approval versus financial approval

Project/client approval versus financial approval is governed as part of Travel Request and Pre-Approval. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For project, client, approval, versus, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

Operational scenario S02: Traveler books a cheaper hotel outside Voyager Travel. Apply the requirements in Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy to the facts, confirm the relevant source-of-truth record and route any specialist issue to the controlling document or function. If a required fact is missing, do not invent it; obtain the controlled record or specialist decision.

3.5 Changes after approval

Changes after approval is governed as part of Travel Request and Pre-Approval. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For changes, after, approval, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

3.6 Emergency travel

Emergency travel is governed as part of Travel Request and Pre-Approval. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For emergency, travel, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

4 Booking Channels and Supplier Use

Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy | FIN-EXP-12 | v6.0 | Effective 2026-07-01 | Section 4 Booking Channels and Supplier Use | Finance | INTERNAL

Booking Channels and Supplier Use establishes the requirements, responsibilities and decision rules that apply within this part of Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy. The rules are interpreted with the document scope, the employee/worker or system context, and any specialist cross-reference that applies.

4.1 Voyager Travel default

Voyager Travel default is governed as part of Booking Channels and Supplier Use. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For voyager, travel, default, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

4.2 Out-of-channel booking

Out-of-channel booking is governed as part of Booking Channels and Supplier Use. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For channel, booking, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

4.3 Preferred suppliers

Preferred suppliers is governed as part of Booking Channels and Supplier Use. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For preferred, suppliers, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

4.4 Booking changes/cancellations

Booking changes/cancellations is governed as part of Booking Channels and Supplier Use. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For booking, changes, cancellations, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

4.5 Personal extensions

Personal extensions is governed as part of Booking Channels and Supplier Use. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For personal, extensions, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

Operational scenario S03: Employee adds a weekend personal stay to a business trip. Apply the requirements in Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy to the facts, confirm the relevant source-of-truth record and route any specialist issue to the controlling document or function. If a required fact is missing, do not invent it; obtain the controlled record or specialist decision.

5 Air Travel and Class of Service

Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy | FIN-EXP-12 | v6.0 | Effective 2026-07-01 | Section 5 Air Travel and Class of Service | Finance | INTERNAL

Air Travel and Class of Service establishes the requirements, responsibilities and decision rules that apply within this part of Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy. The rules are interpreted with the document scope, the employee/worker or system context, and any specialist cross-reference that applies.

5.1 Domestic travel

Domestic travel is governed as part of Air Travel and Class of Service. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For domestic, travel, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

FIN-EXP-12-T02 - Air Class Eligibility Matrix

Band	Domestic	International <8h	International >=8h
Bands 1-3	Economy	Economy	Economy
Bands 4-5	Economy	Economy	Premium economy
Bands 6-8	Economy	Economy	Business class

5.2 International travel

International travel is governed as part of Air Travel and Class of Service. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For international, travel, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

5.3 Band/duration eligibility

Band/duration eligibility is governed as part of Air Travel and Class of Service. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For duration, eligibility, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

5 Air Travel and Class of Service - continued

5.4 Medical or accessibility exceptions

Medical or accessibility exceptions is governed as part of Air Travel and Class of Service. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For medical, accessibility, exceptions, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

5.5 Upgrades

Upgrades is governed as part of Air Travel and Class of Service. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For upgrades, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

Operational scenario S04: Corporate card is used accidentally for a personal meal. Apply the requirements in Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy to the facts, confirm the relevant source-of-truth record and route any specialist issue to the controlling document or function. If a required fact is missing, do not invent it; obtain the controlled record or specialist decision.

5.6 Missed flights

Missed flights is governed as part of Air Travel and Class of Service. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For missed, flights, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

5 Air Travel and Class of Service - continued

6 Hotels and Lodging

Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy | FIN-EXP-12 | v6.0 | Effective 2026-07-01 | Section 6 Hotels and Lodging | Finance | INTERNAL

Hotels and Lodging establishes the requirements, responsibilities and decision rules that apply within this part of Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy. The rules are interpreted with the document scope, the employee/worker or system context, and any specialist cross-reference that applies.

6.1 Nightly limits

Nightly limits is governed as part of Hotels and Lodging. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For nightly, limits, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

FIN-EXP-12-T03 - Hotel Limit Matrix

Location group	Nightly baseline before tax	Booking rule
Bengaluru/Hyderabad/Pune/Chennai	INR 8,000	Use Voyager Travel / negotiated rate
Mumbai/Gurugram	INR 10,000	Use Voyager Travel / negotiated rate
International	USD 250 equivalent	Lower of negotiated rate or cap where available

6.2 Preferred hotels

The internal lodging caps are Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Pune and Chennai: INR 8,000 per night before taxes; Mumbai and Gurugram: INR 10,000 per night before taxes. International lodging baseline: the lower of the negotiated corporate rate or USD 250 equivalent per night before taxes, unless Voyager Travel shows no compliant option within a reasonable business radius. When compliant lodging is unavailable, Voyager Travel evidence and manager/Finance approval must accompany the exception.

Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For preferred, hotels, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

6.3 Extended stays

Extended stays is governed as part of Hotels and Lodging. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For extended, stays, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

6.4 Shared lodging

The internal lodging caps are Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Pune and Chennai: INR 8,000 per night before taxes; Mumbai and Gurugram: INR 10,000 per night before taxes. International lodging baseline: the lower of the negotiated corporate rate or USD 250 equivalent per night before taxes, unless Voyager Travel shows no compliant option within a reasonable business radius. When compliant lodging is unavailable, Voyager Travel evidence and manager/Finance approval must accompany the exception.

Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For shared, lodging, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

Operational scenario S05: Manager approves own expense through delegated access. Apply the requirements in Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy to the facts, confirm the relevant source-of-truth record and route any specialist issue to the controlling document or function. If a required fact is missing, do not invent it; obtain the controlled record or specialist decision.

6.5 Personal charges

Personal charges is governed as part of Hotels and Lodging. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For personal, charges, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

6.6 Safety exceptions

Safety exceptions is governed as part of Hotels and Lodging. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For safety, exceptions, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

7 Ground Transport and Rental Vehicles

Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy | FIN-EXP-12 | v6.0 | Effective 2026-07-01 | Section 7 Ground Transport and Rental Vehicles | Finance | INTERNAL

Ground Transport and Rental Vehicles establishes the requirements, responsibilities and decision rules that apply within this part of Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy. The rules are interpreted with the document scope, the employee/worker or system context, and any specialist cross-reference that applies.

7.1 Taxis/rideshare

Taxis/rideshare is governed as part of Ground Transport and Rental Vehicles. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For taxis, rideshare, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

7.2 Rail

Rail is governed as part of Ground Transport and Rental Vehicles. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For this activity, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

7.3 Rental vehicles

Rental vehicles is governed as part of Ground Transport and Rental Vehicles. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For rental, vehicles, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

7.4 Personal vehicle use

Personal vehicle use is governed as part of Ground Transport and Rental Vehicles. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For personal, vehicle, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

7.5 Parking/tolls

Parking/tolls is governed as part of Ground Transport and Rental Vehicles. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For parking, tolls, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

7.6 Safety and insurance boundary

Safety and insurance boundary is governed as part of Ground Transport and Rental Vehicles. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For safety, insurance, boundary, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

Operational scenario S06: Receipt is missing but card transaction is visible. Apply the requirements in Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy to the facts, confirm the relevant source-of-truth record and route any specialist issue to the controlling document or function. If a required fact is missing, do not invent it; obtain the controlled record or specialist decision.

8 Meals and Per Diem

Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy | FIN-EXP-12 | v6.0 | Effective 2026-07-01 | Section 8 Meals and Per Diem | Finance | INTERNAL

Meals and Per Diem establishes the requirements, responsibilities and decision rules that apply within this part of Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy. The rules are interpreted with the document scope, the employee/worker or system context, and any specialist cross-reference that applies.

8.1 Meal limits

Meal limits is governed as part of Meals and Per Diem. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For limits, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

FIN-EXP-12-T04 - Meal/Per Diem Limit Matrix

Control point	Required treatment	Evidence
Business purpose	Must be defined before action or approval	Request/workflow record
Independent approval	No self-approval where requester benefits or is conflicted	Approval history
Specialist trigger	Route Security/Privacy/Legal/Finance/HR review when criteria apply	Concurrence record
Exception	Document scope, justification, controls and expiry	Approved exception record

8.2 Per diem use

Domestic meal reimbursement is limited to actual reasonable cost up to INR 1,500 per travel day when meals are not otherwise provided. International travel uses a USD 75 equivalent daily ceiling. Alcohol is not reimbursable unless it is part of approved client entertainment and separately authorized under the entertainment rules.

Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For this activity, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

8.3 Hosted/client meals

Domestic meal reimbursement is limited to actual reasonable cost up to INR 1,500 per travel day when meals are not otherwise provided. International travel uses a USD 75 equivalent daily ceiling. Alcohol is not reimbursable unless it is part of approved client entertainment and separately authorized under the entertainment rules.

Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For hosted, client, meals, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

8.4 Alcohol exclusion or restriction as internal rule

Alcohol exclusion or restriction as internal rule is governed as part of Meals and Per Diem. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For alcohol, exclusion, restriction, internal, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

8.5 Duplicate meal claims

Duplicate meal claims is governed as part of Meals and Per Diem. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For duplicate, claims, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

8.6 Tips/service charges

Tips/service charges is governed as part of Meals and Per Diem. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For service, charges, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

Operational scenario S07: Employee submits a claim after the standard deadline. Apply the requirements in Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy to the facts, confirm the relevant source-of-truth record and route any specialist issue to the controlling document or function. If a required fact is missing, do not invent it; obtain the controlled record or specialist decision.

9 International Travel, Visa and Insurance Administration

Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy | FIN-EXP-12 | v6.0 | Effective 2026-07-01 | Section 9 International Travel, Visa and Insurance Administration | Finance | INTERNAL

International Travel, Visa and Insurance Administration establishes the requirements, responsibilities and decision rules that apply within this part of Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy. The rules are interpreted with the document scope, the employee/worker or system context, and any specialist cross-reference that applies.

9.1 Travel documentation

Travel documentation is governed as part of International Travel, Visa and Insurance Administration. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For travel, documentation, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

9.2 Visa processing support

Visa processing support is governed as part of International Travel, Visa and Insurance Administration. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For processing, support, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

9.3 Insurance

Insurance is governed as part of International Travel, Visa and Insurance Administration. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For insurance, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

9.4 Foreign travel advisories as external source

Foreign travel advisories as external source is governed as part of International Travel, Visa and Insurance Administration. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For foreign, travel, advisories, external, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

9.5 Security/privacy preparation

Security/privacy preparation is governed as part of International Travel, Visa and Insurance Administration. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For security, privacy, preparation, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

9.6 Extended assignment handoff

Extended assignment handoff is governed as part of International Travel, Visa and Insurance Administration. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For extended, assignment, handoff, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

10 Conferences, Training, Client Entertainment and Events

Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy | FIN-EXP-12 | v6.0 | Effective 2026-07-01 | Section 10 Conferences, Training, Client Entertainment and Events | Finance | INTERNAL Conferences, Training, Client Entertainment and Events establishes the requirements, responsibilities and decision rules that apply within this part of Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy. The rules are interpreted with the document scope, the employee/worker or system context, and any specialist cross-reference that applies.

10.1 Conference registration

Conference registration is governed as part of Conferences, Training, Client Entertainment and Events. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For conference, registration, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

10.2 Training travel

Training travel is governed as part of Conferences, Training, Client Entertainment and Events. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For training, travel, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

10.3 Client entertainment

Client entertainment is governed as part of Conferences, Training, Client Entertainment and Events. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For client, entertainment, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

Operational scenario S08: Client meal includes people from both Aurelius and the client. Apply the requirements in Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy to the facts, confirm the relevant source-of-truth record and route any specialist issue to the controlling document or function. If a required fact is missing, do not invent it; obtain the controlled record or specialist decision.

10.4 Team events

Team events is governed as part of Conferences, Training, Client Entertainment and Events. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For events, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

10.5 Gifts/hospitality boundary

Gifts/hospitality boundary is governed as part of Conferences, Training, Client Entertainment and Events. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For gifts, hospitality, boundary, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

Related controlled source: Code of Conduct & Business Ethics (ETH-COC-01) §4 - Gift/hospitality boundary. This reference supplements this section and does not transfer ownership of unrelated rules.

10.6 Procurement boundary

Procurement boundary is governed as part of Conferences, Training, Client Entertainment and Events. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For procurement, boundary, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

11 Corporate Card Issuance and Use

Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy | FIN-EXP-12 | v6.0 | Effective 2026-07-01 | Section 11 Corporate Card Issuance and Use | Finance | INTERNAL

Corporate Card Issuance and Use establishes the requirements, responsibilities and decision rules that apply within this part of Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy. The rules are interpreted with the document scope, the employee/worker or system context, and any specialist cross-reference that applies.

11.1 Eligibility

Eligibility is governed as part of Corporate Card Issuance and Use. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For eligibility, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

11.2 Issuance

Issuance is governed as part of Corporate Card Issuance and Use. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For issuance, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

FIN-EXP-12-T05 - Corporate Card Eligibility and Limits

Control point	Required treatment	Evidence
Business purpose	Must be defined before action or approval	Request/workflow record
Independent approval	No self-approval where requester benefits or is conflicted	Approval history
Specialist trigger	Route Security/Privacy/Legal/Finance/HR review when criteria apply	Concurrence record
Exception	Document scope, justification, controls and expiry	Approved exception record

11.3 Permitted use

Permitted use is governed as part of Corporate Card Issuance and Use. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For permitted, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

Related controlled source: Procurement, Vendor & Third-Party Risk Management Policy (PROC-TPRM-11) §3 - Card use does not replace procurement. This reference supplements this section and does not transfer ownership of unrelated rules.

11.4 Personal use prohibition

Personal use prohibition is governed as part of Corporate Card Issuance and Use. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For personal, prohibition, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

11.5 Cash withdrawals

Cash withdrawals is governed as part of Corporate Card Issuance and Use. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For withdrawals, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

11.6 Lost/stolen card

Lost/stolen card is governed as part of Corporate Card Issuance and Use. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For stolen, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

Operational scenario S09: Team attempts to buy an AI SaaS subscription with a corporate card. Do not use a corporate card to bypass procurement. Route the supplier through SourceLine Procurement, VendorLens and any Security/Privacy/AI review triggered by the intended data and use case.

11.7 Card suspension/closure

Card suspension/closure is governed as part of Corporate Card Issuance and Use. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For suspension, closure, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

12 Reimbursable and Non-Reimbursable Expenses

Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy | FIN-EXP-12 | v6.0 | Effective 2026-07-01 | Section 12 Reimbursable and Non-Reimbursable Expenses | Finance | INTERNAL

Reimbursable and Non-Reimbursable Expenses establishes the requirements, responsibilities and decision rules that apply within this part of Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy. The rules are interpreted with the document scope, the employee/worker or system context, and any specialist cross-reference that applies.

12.1 Business expense categories

Business expense categories is governed as part of Reimbursable and Non-Reimbursable Expenses. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For business, expense, categories, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

12.2 Home-office/remote expense boundary

Home-office/remote expense boundary is governed as part of Reimbursable and Non-Reimbursable Expenses. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For office, remote, expense, boundary, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

FIN-EXP-12-T06 - Reimbursable Expense Matrix

Control point	Required treatment	Evidence
Business purpose	Must be defined before action or approval	Request/workflow record
Independent approval	No self-approval where requester benefits or is conflicted	Approval history
Specialist trigger	Route Security/Privacy/Legal/Finance/HR review when criteria apply	Concurrence record
Exception	Document scope, justification, controls and expiry	Approved exception record

12.3 Communication expenses

Communication expenses is governed as part of Reimbursable and Non-Reimbursable Expenses. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For communication, expenses, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

12.4 Client/project expenses

Client/project expenses is governed as part of Reimbursable and Non-Reimbursable Expenses. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For client, project, expenses, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

12.5 Personal convenience expenses

Personal convenience expenses is governed as part of Reimbursable and Non-Reimbursable Expenses. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For personal, convenience, expenses, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

12.6 Duplicate reimbursement prevention

Duplicate reimbursement prevention is governed as part of Reimbursable and Non-Reimbursable Expenses. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For duplicate, reimbursement, prevention, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

Operational scenario S10: Traveler loses a corporate card overseas. Apply the requirements in Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy to the facts, confirm the relevant source-of-truth record and route any specialist issue to the controlling document or function. If a required fact is missing, do not invent it; obtain the controlled record or specialist decision.

13 Receipts and Supporting Evidence

Receipts and Supporting Evidence establishes the requirements, responsibilities and decision rules that apply within this part of Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy. The rules are interpreted with the document scope, the employee/worker or system context, and any specialist cross-reference that applies.

13.1 Receipt requirements

Receipt requirements is governed as part of Receipts and Supporting Evidence. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For receipt, requirements, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

13.2 Electronic evidence

Electronic evidence is governed as part of Receipts and Supporting Evidence. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For electronic, evidence, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

FIN-EXP-12-T07 - Receipt Evidence Matrix

Control point	Required treatment	Evidence
Business purpose	Must be defined before action or approval	Request/workflow record
Independent approval	No self-approval where requester benefits or is conflicted	Approval history
Specialist trigger	Route Security/Privacy/Legal/Finance/HR review when criteria apply	Concurrence record
Exception	Document scope, justification, controls and expiry	Approved exception record

13.3 Itemization

Itemization is governed as part of Receipts and Supporting Evidence. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For itemization, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

13.4 Attendee/business-purpose evidence

Attendee/business-purpose evidence is governed as part of Receipts and Supporting Evidence. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For attendee, business, purpose, evidence, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

13.5 Lost receipt process

A lost-receipt declaration may be used only when a duplicate cannot reasonably be obtained. It is limited to expenses up to INR 2,000 equivalent and no more than two declarations per employee per calendar quarter without Finance Operations approval.

Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For receipt, process, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

13.6 Sensitive-data minimization

Sensitive-data minimization is governed as part of Receipts and Supporting Evidence. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For sensitive, minimization, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

14 Expense Claim Submission and Deadlines

Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy | FIN-EXP-12 | v6.0 | Effective 2026-07-01 | Section 14 Expense Claim Submission and Deadlines | Finance | INTERNAL

Expense Claim Submission and Deadlines establishes the requirements, responsibilities and decision rules that apply within this part of Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy. The rules are interpreted with the document scope, the employee/worker or system context, and any specialist cross-reference that applies.

14.1 Claim creation

Claim creation is governed as part of Expense Claim Submission and Deadlines. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For claim, creation, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

14.2 Submission deadline

Expense claims must normally be submitted in LedgerLane Expense within 15 calendar days after trip completion or the expense date when no trip exists.

Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For submission, deadline, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

FIN-EXP-12-T08 - Submission Deadline and Late-Claim Matrix

Control point	Required treatment	Evidence
Business purpose	Must be defined before action or approval	Request/workflow record
Independent approval	No self-approval where requester benefits or is conflicted	Approval history
Specialist trigger	Route Security/Privacy/Legal/Finance/HR review when criteria apply	Concurrence record
Exception	Document scope, justification, controls and expiry	Approved exception record

14.3 Returned claims

Returned claims is governed as part of Expense Claim Submission and Deadlines. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For returned, claims, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

Operational scenario S11: Taxi receipt contains a personal phone number and precise travel locations. Apply the requirements in Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy to the facts, confirm the relevant source-of-truth record and route any specialist issue to the controlling document or function. If a required fact is missing, do not invent it; obtain the controlled record or specialist decision.

14.4 Late claims

Late claims is governed as part of Expense Claim Submission and Deadlines. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For claims, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

14.5 Card transaction reconciliation

Card transaction reconciliation is governed as part of Expense Claim Submission and Deadlines. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For transaction, reconciliation, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

14.6 Separation-period claims

Separation-period claims is governed as part of Expense Claim Submission and Deadlines. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For separation, period, claims, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

15 Expense and Travel Approval Hierarchy

Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy | FIN-EXP-12 | v6.0 | Effective 2026-07-01 | Section 15 Expense and Travel Approval Hierarchy | Finance | INTERNAL

Expense and Travel Approval Hierarchy establishes the requirements, responsibilities and decision rules that apply within this part of Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy. The rules are interpreted with the document scope, the employee/worker or system context, and any specialist cross-reference that applies.

15.1 Line Manager approval

Line Manager approval is governed as part of Expense and Travel Approval Hierarchy. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For manager, approval, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

15.2 Cost Centre Owner approval

Cost Centre Owner approval is governed as part of Expense and Travel Approval Hierarchy. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For centre, owner, approval, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

FIN-EXP-12-T09 - Approval Hierarchy by Amount/Type

Situation	Primary approver	Specialist concurrence	Evidence
Routine request	Line Manager / designated owner	As triggered	Business purpose + workflow record
Material or high-risk request	Functional Head / Business Owner	Security/Privacy/Legal/Finance as applicable	Risk and exception rationale
Enterprise exception	Executive Approver or governance committee	Policy Owner	Scope, conditions, expiry, review date

15.3 Higher-value/escalated approvals

Higher-value/escalated approvals is governed as part of Expense and Travel Approval Hierarchy. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For higher, value, escalated, approvals, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

15.4 Executive expenses

Executive expenses is governed as part of Expense and Travel Approval Hierarchy. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For executive, expenses, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

15.5 Conflicted approver route

Conflicted approver route is governed as part of Expense and Travel Approval Hierarchy. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For conflicted, approver, route, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

Operational scenario S12: Employee splits one purchase across claims to avoid an approval threshold. Apply the requirements in Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy to the facts, confirm the relevant source-of-truth record and route any specialist issue to the controlling document or function. If a required fact is missing, do not invent it; obtain the controlled record or specialist decision.

15.6 Delegation

Delegation is governed as part of Expense and Travel Approval Hierarchy. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For delegation, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

16 Currency Conversion and International Expense Processing

Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy | FIN-EXP-12 | v6.0 | Effective 2026-07-01 | Section 16 Currency Conversion and International Expense Processing | Finance | INTERNAL

Currency Conversion and International Expense Processing establishes the requirements, responsibilities and decision rules that apply within this part of Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy. The rules are interpreted with the document scope, the employee/worker or system context, and any specialist cross-reference that applies.

16.1 Approved conversion source

Approved conversion source is governed as part of Currency Conversion and International Expense Processing. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For approved, conversion, source, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

16.2 Card versus cash conversion

Card versus cash conversion is governed as part of Currency Conversion and International Expense Processing. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For versus, conversion, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

16.3 Exchange evidence

Exchange evidence is governed as part of Currency Conversion and International Expense Processing. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For exchange, evidence, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

16.4 Mixed-currency claims

Mixed-currency claims is governed as part of Currency Conversion and International Expense Processing. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For mixed, currency, claims, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

16.5 Rounding and corrections

Rounding and corrections is governed as part of Currency Conversion and International Expense Processing. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For rounding, corrections, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

17 Prohibited Expenses and Abuse Indicators

Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy | FIN-EXP-12 | v6.0 | Effective 2026-07-01 | Section 17 Prohibited Expenses and Abuse Indicators | Finance | INTERNAL

Prohibited Expenses and Abuse Indicators establishes the requirements, responsibilities and decision rules that apply within this part of Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy. The rules are interpreted with the document scope, the employee/worker or system context, and any specialist cross-reference that applies.

17.1 Personal expenses

Personal expenses is governed as part of Prohibited Expenses and Abuse Indicators. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For personal, expenses, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

17.2 Fines/penalties

Fines/penalties is governed as part of Prohibited Expenses and Abuse Indicators. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For fines, penalties, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

FIN-EXP-12-T10 - Prohibited Expense Examples

Control point	Required treatment	Evidence
Business purpose	Must be defined before action or approval	Request/workflow record
Independent approval	No self-approval where requester benefits or is conflicted	Approval history
Specialist trigger	Route Security/Privacy/Legal/Finance/HR review when criteria apply	Concurrence record
Exception	Document scope, justification, controls and expiry	Approved exception record

Operational scenario S13: Consultant travels at Aurelius expense under a project statement of work. Apply the requirements in Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy to the facts, confirm the relevant source-of-truth record and route any specialist issue to the controlling document or function. If a required fact is missing, do not invent it; obtain the controlled record or specialist decision.

17.3 Unapproved upgrades

Unapproved upgrades is governed as part of Prohibited Expenses and Abuse Indicators. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For unapproved, upgrades, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

17.4 Split claims

Split claims is governed as part of Prohibited Expenses and Abuse Indicators. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For split, claims, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

17.5 False/altered evidence

False/altered evidence is governed as part of Prohibited Expenses and Abuse Indicators. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For false, altered, evidence, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

17.6 Procurement circumvention

Procurement circumvention is governed as part of Prohibited Expenses and Abuse Indicators. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For procurement, circumvention, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

Related controlled source: Procurement, Vendor & Third-Party Risk Management Policy (PROC-TPRM-11) §3 - Procurement circumvention. This reference supplements this section and does not transfer ownership of unrelated rules.

18 Exceptions and Lost-Receipt Handling

Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy | FIN-EXP-12 | v6.0 | Effective 2026-07-01 | Section 18 Exceptions and Lost-Receipt Handling | Finance | INTERNAL

Exceptions and Lost-Receipt Handling establishes the requirements, responsibilities and decision rules that apply within this part of Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy. The rules are interpreted with the document scope, the employee/worker or system context, and any specialist cross-reference that applies.

18.1 Prospective travel exceptions

Prospective travel exceptions is governed as part of Exceptions and Lost-Receipt Handling. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For prospective, travel, exceptions, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

18.2 Post-event expense exception

Post-event expense exception is governed as part of Exceptions and Lost-Receipt Handling. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For event, expense, exception, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

FIN-EXP-12-T11 - Exception Approval Matrix

Situation	Primary approver	Specialist concurrence	Evidence
Routine request	Line Manager / designated owner	As triggered	Business purpose + workflow record
Material or high-risk request	Functional Head / Business Owner	Security/Privacy/Legal/Finance as applicable	Risk and exception rationale
Enterprise exception	Executive Approver or governance committee	Policy Owner	Scope, conditions, expiry, review date

18.3 Lost receipt declaration

A lost-receipt declaration may be used only when a duplicate cannot reasonably be obtained. It is limited to expenses up to INR 2,000 equivalent and no more than two declarations per employee per calendar quarter without Finance Operations approval.

Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For receipt, declaration, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

18.4 Approval authority

Approval authority is governed as part of Exceptions and Lost-Receipt Handling. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For approval, authority, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

Operational scenario S14: Employee submits an altered receipt amount. Apply the requirements in Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy to the facts, confirm the relevant source-of-truth record and route any specialist issue to the controlling document or function. If a required fact is missing, do not invent it; obtain the controlled record or specialist decision.

18.5 Validity and documentation

Validity and documentation is governed as part of Exceptions and Lost-Receipt Handling. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For validity, documentation, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

19 Fraud Review, Recovery and Audit

Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy | FIN-EXP-12 | v6.0 | Effective 2026-07-01 | Section 19 Fraud Review, Recovery and Audit | Finance | INTERNAL

Fraud Review, Recovery and Audit establishes the requirements, responsibilities and decision rules that apply within this part of Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy. The rules are interpreted with the document scope, the employee/worker or system context, and any specialist cross-reference that applies.

19.1 Finance review

Finance review is governed as part of Fraud Review, Recovery and Audit. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For finance, review, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

19.2 Potential misconduct referral

Potential misconduct referral is governed as part of Fraud Review, Recovery and Audit. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For potential, misconduct, referral, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

19.3 Recovery/repayment

Recovery/repayment is governed as part of Fraud Review, Recovery and Audit. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For recovery, repayment, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

19.4 Card suspension

Card suspension is governed as part of Fraud Review, Recovery and Audit. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For suspension, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

19.5 Audit sampling

Audit sampling is governed as part of Fraud Review, Recovery and Audit. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For audit, sampling, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

19.6 Record preservation

Record preservation is governed as part of Fraud Review, Recovery and Audit. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For record, preservation, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

20 Security, Privacy and Records During Travel/Expense Processing

Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy | FIN-EXP-12 | v6.0 | Effective 2026-07-01 | Section 20 Security, Privacy and Records During Travel/Expense Processing | Finance | INTERNAL Security, Privacy and Records During Travel/Expense Processing establishes the requirements, responsibilities and decision rules that apply within this part of Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy. The rules are interpreted with the document scope, the employee/worker or system context, and any specialist cross-reference that applies.

20.1 Travel data

Travel data is governed as part of Security, Privacy and Records During Travel/Expense Processing. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For travel, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

20.2 Receipts containing Personal Data

Receipts containing Personal Data is governed as part of Security, Privacy and Records During Travel/Expense Processing. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For receipts, containing, personal, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

Related controlled source: Data Privacy & Data Governance Policy (PRIV-DG-02) §6 - Travel/receipt Personal Data. This reference supplements this section and does not transfer ownership of unrelated rules.

20.3 Device/data security while traveling

Device/data security while traveling is governed as part of Security, Privacy and Records During Travel/Expense Processing. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For device, security, while, traveling, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

Related controlled source: Information Security Policy & Procedures Manual (SEC-POL-01) §6 - Device/data security while traveling. This reference supplements this section and does not transfer ownership of unrelated rules.

20.4 Incident reporting

Incident reporting is governed as part of Security, Privacy and Records During Travel/Expense Processing. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For incident, reporting, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

20.5 Records and retention

Records and retention is governed as part of Security, Privacy and Records During Travel/Expense Processing. Company funds and corporate cards may be used only for reasonable, necessary and properly approved business expenditure.

For records, retention, the traveller or requester must retain evidence sufficient for an independent approver to understand who incurred the cost, the business purpose, date, amount, currency and any exception. Approvers must examine business purpose, policy compliance, evidence and budget ownership rather than treating approval as an administrative click.

- Personal convenience does not justify a higher company cost unless an approved exception exists.
- An approver with a personal interest in the transaction must route approval to an independent authority.
- Finance may return or reject a claim that lacks required evidence even when the underlying trip was approved.

Appendices, Forms and Checklists

Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy | FIN-EXP-12 | v6.0 | Effective 2026-07-01 | Section Appendices Controlled execution aids | Finance | INTERNAL

FIN-EXP-12-AA Travel and Expense Definitions

Term	Controlled meaning
Worker	Umbrella term covering employees and non-employee workers with an Aurelius work relationship or approved access.
Employee	Worker in RFT, RPT, or FXT category. Interns, apprentices, contractors, consultants, temporary staff, and vendor personnel are not called Employees unless a specific engagement record explicitly says otherwise.
Non-Employee Worker	Worker in INT, APP, CTR, CNS, TMP, or VND category for registry purposes.
People Manager	Manager with formal direct reports in PeopleHub. A project lead is not automatically a People Manager.
Line Manager	The PeopleHub-recorded manager responsible for routine people approvals and supervision.
Functional Head	Band 7 or Band 8 leader accountable for a major department or function.
Business Owner	Named role accountable for business purpose, outcomes, funding, and risk decisions for a service, vendor, model, process, or system.
System Owner	Named role accountable for a system's lifecycle, business operation, access model, and control implementation.
Data Owner	Named business role accountable for a data domain's classification, authorized use, access conditions, and lifecycle decisions.
Asset Custodian	Person or team assigned operational possession or administration of an information or technology asset; custody does not transfer ownership accountability.
Policy Owner	Senior role accountable for policy interpretation, maintenance, exceptions, and review.
Control Owner	Role accountable for design and operating effectiveness of a defined control.

FIN-EXP-12-AB Traveler Pre-Departure Checklist

Use this checklist as an execution aid. It does not create an exception or replace an approval required by the controlling section.

- Confirm the request or event is within the scope of Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy.
- Verify the authoritative worker, system, vendor, expense, incident or model record before taking action.
- Identify conditions that change the rule, including employment category, band, data classification, risk level, location, client assignment or service criticality.
- Obtain independent approval and specialist concurrence where the policy requires it.
- Record the decision, evidence, exception conditions and any expiry or follow-up date in the designated system.
- Escalate unresolved conflicts to the Policy Owner rather than creating a local workaround.

Appendices - continued

FIN-EXP-12-AC Expense Claim Checklist

Use this checklist as an execution aid. It does not create an exception or replace an approval required by the controlling section.

- Confirm the request or event is within the scope of Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy.
- Verify the authoritative worker, system, vendor, expense, incident or model record before taking action.
- Identify conditions that change the rule, including employment category, band, data classification, risk level, location, client assignment or service criticality.
- Obtain independent approval and specialist concurrence where the policy requires it.
- Record the decision, evidence, exception conditions and any expiry or follow-up date in the designated system.
- Escalate unresolved conflicts to the Policy Owner rather than creating a local workaround.

FIN-EXP-12-AD Corporate Card Checklist

Use this checklist as an execution aid. It does not create an exception or replace an approval required by the controlling section.

- Confirm the request or event is within the scope of Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy.
- Verify the authoritative worker, system, vendor, expense, incident or model record before taking action.
- Identify conditions that change the rule, including employment category, band, data classification, risk level, location, client assignment or service criticality.
- Obtain independent approval and specialist concurrence where the policy requires it.
- Record the decision, evidence, exception conditions and any expiry or follow-up date in the designated system.
- Escalate unresolved conflicts to the Policy Owner rather than creating a local workaround.

Appendices - continued

FIN-EXP-12-AE Travel Exception Checklist

Use this checklist as an execution aid. It does not create an exception or replace an approval required by the controlling section.

- Confirm the request or event is within the scope of Travel, Expense & Corporate Card Policy.
- Verify the authoritative worker, system, vendor, expense, incident or model record before taking action.
- Identify conditions that change the rule, including employment category, band, data classification, risk level, location, client assignment or service criticality.
- Obtain independent approval and specialist concurrence where the policy requires it.
- Record the decision, evidence, exception conditions and any expiry or follow-up date in the designated system.
- Escalate unresolved conflicts to the Policy Owner rather than creating a local workaround.

FIN-EXP-12-F01 Lost Receipt Declaration

Field	Entry / controlled record
Requester / worker name
Employee or worker ID
Department / project
Manager / sponsor
Date / effective period
Business purpose
Requested action or decision
Supporting evidence
Approvals / concurrence
Exception or risk notes
Closure / outcome
Record location

Appendices - continued

FIN-EXP-12-F02 Travel/Expense Exception Request

Field	Entry / controlled record
Requester / worker name
Employee or worker ID
Department / project
Manager / sponsor
Date / effective period
Business purpose
Requested action or decision
Supporting evidence
Approvals / concurrence
Exception or risk notes
Closure / outcome
Record location	